to Brother John

I never thought before that you would <sup>thought</sup> get my charity towards you so soon you know very well when you work with Mr Hills and live in the my gnaigwen often I use to give you many things hay for your cow and corn; carry it on my back with you as far as y nus belan wet my feet and dirty my close and always with pleasure give you many shillings and pay for you many Pounds

When I came to see you so far I was glad to here that you were so well off expect to see some of your respect towards poor Billi after came so far never for me mouth full of any thing to eat nor drink but expect me to send you quart of ale and I dont know what for I was expect couple of pound for you this time however but thank God I could do without them

But Dr Brother after all I wish every prosperity and most happy to here that your situation <sup>is</sup> comforttable and successful

I remain Dr
brother yours truly
William Jones

B.S.

I assure you that I would be most happy to see you in the flesh. Man I would be very sorry to see you pay ~~to~~ one penny I would be with you
